Changes to your 2014 Form 1040 Proposed amount due: $105

Thank you for your response to the previous notice we sent you about your 2014 Form 1040. Based on your response, we've determined you owe $105 (including interest).

What you need to do

If we don't hear from you

Summary of proposed changes

Tax you owe	$100
Payments	$0
Interest	$5
Amount due by November 2, 2016	$105

Review this notice, and compare our changes to the information on your 2014 tax return.

If you agree with the changes we made

- Complete, sign and date the Response form on Page 5, and mail it to us along with your payment of $105 so we receive it by November 2, 2016.
- If you can't pay the amount due, pay as much as you can now, and make payment arrangements that allow you to pay off the rest over time. If you want to apply for an installment plan, send in your Response form AND a completed Installment Agreement Request (Form 9465). Download Form 9465 from www.irs.gov, or call 1-800-829-3676 to request a copy. You can also save time and money by applying online if you qualify. Visit www.irs.gov and search for keyword: "tax payment options" for more information about:
 - Installment and payment agreements
 - Payroll deductions
 - Credit card payments

If you don't agree with the changes

- Complete the Response form on Page 5, and send it to us along with a signed statement and any documentation that supports your claim so we receive it by November 2, 2016.
- You may still have time to file a petition with the U.S. Tax Court. However, you must act quickly. The 90 day period has not been extended by our consideration of your case.

If we don't receive your response or you don't file a petition with the U.S. Tax Court by September 6, 2016, we'll assume our changes are correct and send you a bill. Until your tax is paid, interest will increase and additional penalties may apply.
